preliminary injunction against the Respondents. The parties received notice of the hearing and the Petitioner appeared, by and through Special Assistant Attorney General Jesse Laslovich, and no Respondents appeared. The Court heard oral testimony from Lisa White, a former employee of the Respondents, and Lynne Egan, Deputy Montana Commissioner of Securities, both of whom testified on behalf of the Petitioner. The Court, having heard and considered the testimony, relying on the Affidavit of Ms. Egan, and finding good cause to believe that the Petitioner is entitled to the relief requested, hereby enters the following:

ORDER

1. Pursuant to Mont. Code Ann. § 27-19-201, the Petitioner's request for issuance of a preliminary injunction is GRANTED.
2. Pursuant to Mont. Code Ann. § 27-19-201(1), this preliminary injunction restrains the Respondents from the following:
    a. engaging in securities business practices in the state of Montana, as defined by the Securities Act of Montana (Act), Mont. Code Ann. § 30-10-101 et seq.

b. committing further violations of the Act.

c. transferring, encumbering, or disposing of, or attempting to transfer, encumber, or dispose of any monies, assets, and property interests the Respondents possess or control that may have been obtained, in whole or in part, using investor funds. These assets and property interests include, but are not limited to:

   i. The Jeep Richard F. Reynolds (Richard) purchased on December 1, 2010, from Billion Auto Group, paid for by check in the amount of $35,960;

   ii. The Dodge Caliber Lori Reynolds (Lori) purchased on February 7, 2011, from Billion Auto Group, paid for by check in the amount of $14,039;

   iii. The truck Richard purchased on August 18, 2011, from Billion Auto Group, paid for by check in the amount of $35,000;

   iv. Any shares or ownership interest any of the Respondents hold in Moonhair Films, LLC (Moonhair), a Montana production company, C191060; any proceeds derived from the sale of such shares or ownership interest; any profits attributable to the Respondents and derived from Moonhair operations; and any payments to the Respondents from Moonhair;

v. Any shares or ownership interest any of the Respondents hold in Life Giving Health Center, LLP (the Center), a Montana partnership, ID # P164425; any proceeds derived from the sale of such shares or ownership interest; any profits attributable to the Respondents and derived from the Center's operations; and any payments to the Respondents from the Center; vi.
