

Montana Workers Compensation Classification Review Committee

Executive Summary

Overview

The Agenda Item to be considered by the Committee is the final rulemaking adoption of the NCCI classification item filings and amendments to the Administrative Rules of Montana, accepted and approved by the Committee, as proposed by NCCI, at the August 13, 2019 meeting. Upon the Committee's completion of rulemaking and publication of an amendment and adoption notice, adopting the final form of NCCI's classification item filings and the rule changes, NCCI will then submit the classification item filings to CSI for approval.

With assistance from the Office of the Montana State Auditor, Commissioner of Securities and Insurance (CSI), the Committee held a public rulemaking hearing on October 16, 2019. A written public comment period was held open through October 24, 2019. No public comments were received.
