Plaintiff,

v.

MARK ANTHONY BIEGLER

Defendant.

Case No.: ADC-2020-330

Judge: Mike MenahanSECOND PETITION TO REVOKE
DEFENDANT'S SUSPENDED SENTENCES

RICHARD E. WOOTTON, Special Deputy County Attorney for Lewis and Clark County and legal counsel for the Commissioner of Securities and Insurance, Office of the Montana State Auditor (CSI), petitions the Court to revoke Defendant's suspended sentences imposed on August 28, 2024 by this Court's Judgment and Sentence upon Revocation of Original Suspended Sentences, for the reason that Defendant has failed to abide by the conditions of his suspended sentences.

As the Court is aware, in June 2020, the State charged Defendant with theft of insurance premium and criminal insurance fraud. Pursuant to a plea agreement, Defendant was convicted of six felony counts, where he directly caused six victims to sustain at least $152,803.13 in economic losses. The parties stipulated to $152,803.13 in restitution.

On February 14, 2023, the Court imposed six concurrent sentences of ten years imprisonment at the Montana State Prison. The sentences were largely suspended. The Judgment specified:

The Defendant shall serve a term of ninety (90) days in the Lewis and Clark County Jail within one (1) year from oral pronouncement of this Judgment on January 25, 2023. The Defendant may serve the foregoing jail sentence in increments; however, there may be no more than three (3) increments, and each increment may not be less than thirty (30) consecutive days.

The Defendant failed to serve the jail time ordered by the Court in time to meet the one-year deadline, and as a result, in January 2024, the State filed a Petition to Revoke Suspended Sentences. Based on the Petition, the Court issued an Arrest Warrant for the Defendant and required him to post a $25,000 bond if he was released prior to the admit or deny hearing.

On August 28, 2024, following an evidentiary hearing, the Court found that Defendant had violated the conditions of the suspended sentences as alleged by the State. The Court revoked the prior suspended sentences, then sentenced Defendant to six concurrent sentences of ten years imprisonment at the Montana State Prison, all suspended for six felony offenses of either Criminal Insurance Fraud or Theft of Insurance premium as specifically identified in the Court's Judgment, all suspended, with service of the suspended sentences to commence on August 28, 2024. The Defendant received no credit for time served between January 28, 2023 and ending August 27, 2024.

The State files this second petition to revoke because the Defendant continues to violate the terms of his sentence and has recently been charged with felony theft and has only paid $202 toward the over $150,000 in restitution he owes to his victims.

The undersigned Special Deputy County Attorney received a Report of Violation (ROV) from the Probation and Parole Office, dated July 14, 2026, which alleges that Defendant violated the conditions of his suspended sentences and describes the Probation and Parole Officer's efforts during supervision. Copies of the Probation Officer's Affidavit and ROV are attached hereto as State's Exhibit A and are incorporated herein by reference.

The most alarming violation in the ROV is that on July 8, 2026, the Defendant was charged with Felony Theft (common scheme) in Lewis and Clark County case DC-25-2026-0000298-IN. A copy of the Information in that case is attached as Exhibit B. Thus, there is probable cause to believe that the Defendant violated condition 9 in the Court's Judgment and Sentence Upon Revocation of Original Suspended Sentences, which states, "The Defendant must comply with all municipal, county, state, and federal laws . . ."

The ROV also lists other violations of the Court's Sentence. For example, Condition 9 states, among other things, "The Defendant must be cooperative and truthful in all communications and dealings with any probation and parole officer and with any law enforcement agency." However, according to the sworn ROV, the Defendant has been uncooperative and untruthful with Probation and Parole. One example is that on June 30, 2026, the Defendant was told that the Probation officer would be conducting a search of his vehicle. The Defendant stated that he had gotten a ride and had not driven his own vehicle to the appointment. The Probation Officer, however, located the Defendant's vehicle parked a block away from the Probation and Parole office. A search of the Defendant's vehicle produced numerous receipts from other states. However, the Defendant did not have permission to leave Montana, which is a violation of Condition 3, which states, "The Defendant must obtain permission from his supervising officer or the officer's designee before leaving his assigned district."

According to Defendant's probation file, Defendant has paid only $202.00 toward the restitution amount ordered by this Court. The lack of payments is in part because the Defendant has avoided seeking gainful employment. On April 16, 2026, the Defendant told his Probation Officer that he was employed but provided no proof. He later presented a handwritten note identifying himself as being in charge of marketing and distribution for a catering company. When the Probation Officer checked with the company, it confirmed that the Defendant was not employed there. The Defendant was ordered to report to job development services, but he avoided that by again falsely claiming he was employed.

In another example, Condition 4 states, among other things, “Unless otherwise directed by his supervising officer, the Defendant must inform his employer . . . of his status on probation, parole, or other community supervision.” However, according to the sworn ROV, after the Defendant did secure employment, his supervising officer contacted that employer on June 25, 2026, and the employer was unaware of Defendant’s probation status.

The State has probable cause to believe that Defendant violated the conditions of his suspended sentences, to wit: failing to submit to bodily fluid testing, failing to be truthful in communications with a probation and parole officer, failing to pay restitution, failing to obtain prior written permission from his supervising officer before changing his residence, failing to inform his employer of his probation status, failing to obtain permission from his supervising officer before leaving his assigned district, and failing to obtain permission from his supervising officer before purchasing an automobile.

As of the date of the filing of this Petition, the State asserts and has confirmed that the Defendant has violated the terms of his probation previously imposed by the Court. Exhibit A is the affidavit of Rebecca Bracken, Probation and Parole Officer for the Montana Department of Corrections, wherein Ms. Bracken confirms the facts surrounding Defendant’s violations of the terms of his probation. Since the August 28, 2024 Judgment of this Court, Ms. Bracken has made several attempts and reasonable efforts to contact Defendant. Despite those contacts with Defendant, Ms. Bracken’s efforts were unsuccessful in gaining Defendant’s compliance. Defendant’s conduct indicates that Defendant will not be responsive to further efforts under the incentives and intervention grid.

Wherefore, based on Defendant’s failure to comply with the conditions of his suspended sentences, the State respectfully requests that a Bench Warrant be issued so that the Defendant may be brought before the Court for proceedings upon this Petition pursuant to § 46-18-203, MCA. A proposed Bench Warrant is filed herewith for the Court's consideration. Alternatively, it is requested that the Court issue a Summons requiring the Defendant to appear at a specified time and place to admit or deny the allegations in this Petition.

DATED this 17th day of August, 2026.

Legal and Placement History

On January 25, 2023, the Mark Anthony Biegler, herein referred to as the Defendant, was present in Montana's First (1st) Judicial District Court, Lewis and Clark County for pronouncement of sentence by the Honorable Judge Mike Menehan in ADC-2020-330 for the felony offense(s) of Count II: Theft of Insurance Premium, Count IV: Criminal Insurance Fraud, Count VI: Theft of Insurance Premium, Count VII: Theft of Insurance Premium, Count VIII: Theft of Insurance Premium and Count IX: Theft/Insurance Fraud. The Defendant was sentenced to a term of ten (10) years to the Montana State Prison for each count, all suspended, with all counts to run concurrent to one another. The Defendant was also ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $168,133.44.

The same day, the Defendant was signed to his conditions of community supervision with Helena Probation and Parole.

On January 18, 2024, a Petition to Revoke was filed on behalf of the State.

On August 28, 2024, the Court found that the Defendant had violated the conditions of his suspended sentence and granted the State's revocation. The Defendant was re-sentenced to a term of ten (10) years of imprisonment to the Montana State Prison for each count, all suspended, to run concurrent to one another.

Since that time, the following violation(s) are alleged:

Alleged Violation(s)/Supporting Evidence

Count I: Court/Parole Condition: Laws and Conduct: The Defendant must comply with all municipal, county, state, and federal laws and ordinances and shall conduct himself/herself as a good citizen. The Defendant is required, within 72 hours, to report any arrest or contact with law enforcement to his/her supervising officer or designee. The Defendant must be cooperative and truthful in all communications and dealings with any probation and parole officer and with any law enforcement agency.

Violation Type: Non-Compliance

Supporting Evidence: On July 08, 2026, the Defendant was charged with Theft (common scheme) a felony by the Lewis and Clark County Attorneys Office.

Summary:

The Defendant's initial Petition to Revoke was granted on August 28, 2024. He first reported to Probation and Parole on September 6, 2024, where he was instructed to obtain employment and begin making monthly restitution payments before his next scheduled office visit on December 4, 2024.

On September 12, 2024, Probation and Parole Officers attempted a home visit at the Defendant's listed residence. The Defendant did not answer the door, and a business card instructing him to contact his supervising officer immediately was left. He failed to do so. Officers again attempted contact at the listed residence on November 15, 2024, with the same result. Another business card was left, and the Defendant again failed to contact his supervising officer.

On his December 4, 2024, office visit, the Defendant reported no employment and had made no restitution payments. He was also requested to provide a urinalysis but failed to do so. He was sanctioned to increased contact with his supervising officer.

On his next scheduled visit on February 19, 2025, the Defendant still had not obtained employment or made restitution payments. He received another verbal reprimand and was advised that failure to obtain employment or make a payment would result in a job development sanction.

On April 16, 2025, the Defendant claimed to be employed but provided no proof. He was sanctioned to 30 days of ETSS job development. He later presented a handwritten note identifying himself as "Mark Biegler – in charge of marketing and distribution" for a catering company. This Officer contacted the company and confirmed the Defendant was not employed there. He was instructed to report for job development the following morning.

On April 17, 2025, the Defendant reported to job development but claimed he was employed and was sent back to his supervising officer. He was again advised that job development was mandatory until he provided proof of employment or income and began making restitution payments. The Defendant stated he would make a payment by the end of the week.

The Defendant made his first restitution payment of $50 on May 30, 2025. On June 25, 2025, this Officer confirmed that no additional monthly payment had been made and instructed the Defendant to make payments or face further sanctions. On August 8, 2025, this Officer again confirmed that no payments had been made since May 30 and instructed the Defendant to make a payment. On September 10, 2025, the Defendant stated he had attempted to make a payment, but his account had over drafted. He was sanctioned to increased reporting until monthly payments resumed.

On December 3, 2025, the Defendant reported obtaining employment as a 1099 employee. On his January 28, 2026, office visit, he still had not made a restitution payment since May 2025 and was again instructed to begin making payments while continuing monthly reporting. This Officer contacted the Defendant regarding restitution on March 6, 2026, and again on May 28, 2026.

On June 11, 2026, the Lewis and Clark County Sheriff's Office and Forest Service contacted Probation and Parole regarding potential criminal charges. The Defendant was directed to report on June 12, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. but failed to do so.

On June 25, 2026, this Officer learned the Defendant was no longer residing at his listed residence. The property manager reported that the Defendant had instead been living at a secondary residence for three or more months without reporting the change. The property owner had changed the locks to that residence after the Defendant allegedly failed to pay rent for approximately one year.

Also on June 25, 2026, this Officer contacted the Defendant's reported employer and was informed they were unaware of his legal status. The Defendant did not report to Probation and Parole until June 26, 2026. A probation search of his vehicle the following day yielded multiple receipts from states to which the Defendant did not have permission to travel. As a result, the Defendant was sanctioned to 30 days of GPS monitoring and seven days in a pre-release sanction bed.

Adjustment to Supervision

The Defendant's overall adjustment to supervision has been poor. Since his revocation in August of 2024, the Defendant has only contributed approximately $200 towards his restitution. To date, the Defendant still owes $167,133.44. Initially, he reported that he would win a large settlement that would take care of the restitution balance in full. He would then solicit new business ideas or inventions that would make this all go away. On multiple occasions, the Defendant failed to obtain employment within the community and refused to go to a job that he felt was beneath him, like McDonalds, stating he didn't want to be "embarrassed." Other times, he'd report handwritten employment that through verification turned out to be false. He continuously undermines his accountability in paying back restitution, reiterating that the victim(s) have all already been reimbursed through insurance. When sanctioned to job development, the Defendant decided that this should not apply to him and took it upon himself to reiterate to staff that he was employed and did not need to be there. Simply put, the Defendant does not seem to believe that the conditions of his supervision apply to him. The Defendant while employed – would only obtain self-employed positions as a 10-99 therefore wage garnishment was not accessible. When instructed to report, the Defendant took two (2) weeks stating he was in Eastern Montana. To date, the Defendant has never reported when called in or a card is left on his door. He will only report on previously scheduled office visits. On June 30, 2026, this Officer informed the Defendant that we would be conducting a probation search of his vehicle due to his probation violations. The Defendant initially reported that he had gotten a ride and therefore had not driven to the office. Through further investigation, it was revealed that the Defendant had parked a block away from the office and had hidden his vehicle key under a rock in an alley approximately twenty-five (25) yards from his vehicle. A search of this vehicle yielded numerous receipts throughout the last year in various states – the Defendant did not have permission to travel out of state. Also in the vehicle, was a sales purchase receipt from 2025. The Defendant did not have permission to purchase a new vehicle and when asked about it, he reported that a friend had purchased it for him but could not provide more information. Now, the Defendant is alleged to have stolen personal belongings from his own family and friends in excess of over $10,000 – creating further victimization within the community.

Recommendations

☒ Street Time Credit: The Defendant shall be entitled to street time credit for the months in which he paid towards his restitution and was not in violation of the conditions of his supervision. May 01, 2025 – June 01, 2025, and March 01, 2026 – May 01, 2026.

On July 08, 2026, the Defendant was charged with Theft (Common Scheme) a felony and was transported to the Lewis and Clark County Detention Center. A bond recommendation in the amount of $150,000 was sent to the Court the same day. It is respectfully recommended that the Defendant be brought back before the court to answer to the allegations contained within this report. Should he be found guilty of violating the conditions of his supervision, it is respectfully recommended that he be resented to the Montana State Prison – with none of that time suspended.
